

HEIP-LINK. Intellectual Property Rights management in R&D collaboration in Europe, BRICS, Latin America and ASEAN

The goal the HEIP-LINK project is to facilitate international R&D cooperation through exploring and sharing information and good practice on strategic aspects of cross-border cooperation, such as intellectual property rights and technology transfer issues.

HEIP-LINK is carrying out studies, organizing events and developing an interactive web tool, which provides the most complete information on R&D collaboration framework aspects.
